OFFICIAL OF DARK TOBACCO ASSOCIATION STATES WHAT BUYING IN THE FIELD MEANS

Says Trust and Buyers are Trying To Demoralize the Growers By Tempting the Members With Prices.

"Many people, I presume, wonder why the dark tobacco growers and Society of Equity are so vigorously protesting against buyers in the field contracting for the crop before it is grown," remarked an officer of the Dark Tobacco Growers' association today, "and at first glance it might appear that this strong competition with its necessary inflation in price is just what the planters are after. Well, it would be what they are after, if they were all independent competing growers, anxious to get the highest price possible this one season. But we are an organization, the existence of which depends absolutely on the amount of acreage we can secure pledged to us. In other words this is a pool, and as long as we can hold the pool together and control a large per cent of the dark tobacco we can dominate the market and get our price. Whatever will break up that pool and wrest from us control of the tobacco, will destroy our organization and leave us helpless in the hands of the buyers another year. Now, do you see how buying next year's crop in the field is working against us? If we do not control next year's crop, no matter if planters to secure fine contract from the buyers for the one season, we shall be at the mercy of the buyers the next, and lose more than we gain by the temporary inflation in price. "This scheme is brother to the one the Standard Oil works when it sells oil below cost and weans consumers away from competitors only to raise the price when its competitors go out of business.

"As long as we do not ask too much we can control the situation. One prominent foreign buyer said to me not long ago, 'if you fellows do not get greedy and try to gouge us, we would as leave buy of you as any one.'"

"Our pool sustains the price, but we are not asking too much. We try to study conditions, but when buyers go in the field and offer wonderful inducements for crops not yet grown, in order to prevent them being pledged to the association, we know there is something wrong."

"In this district we are all right. We have fully eighty per cent pledged, take it through and through. We will not have an experience like Owensboro and the Green river district."

HIGH INFLUENCE MADE HITCHCOCK RUN FROM CHARGE

New York, Nov. 1.—No word was received by the police as to the whereabouts of Raymond Hitchcock, the actor under indictment. A reply has not been received from the steamer Majestic. Commissioner Bingham expressed doubt if Hitchcock could be extradited from England on the present charges. That some powerful influence was exerted upon Raymond Hitchcock, the comedian, to induce him to abandon his career, leaving his friends in the lurch, and disappear permanently, is the belief of Col. Henry W. Savage and the people of the Savage office. He thinks others high socially and financially are implicated.

Col. Savage, under whose management Hitchcock was starring in "The Yankee Tourist," is deeply chagrined over Hitchcock's disappearance.

That Hitchcock had no money and would be utterly unable to get away and remain away from the lack of financial resources, the Savage people know and state openly. He had when he disappeared Tuesday morning only $3 in money and three rings worth at most $800. He had no other financial resources outside of those provided by Colonel Savage and would have been totally unable to make such a complete getaway as that which he accomplished.

No credence is placed in the suicide theory either by the Savage people, the friends of the actor or the district attorney's office.

Auburn, N. Y., Nov. 1.—Dr. E. Sexton, former assistant superintendent of the state insane hospital, and old friend of Raymond Hitchcock's family, today said he hadn't the slightest doubt that Hitchcock is insane. His father was insane.

TRUST LAWYERS ARE INTERESTED IN GIRL'S CASE

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 1.—Important denouncements may be the final result of the arrest of Miss Etta McLain, District Attorney Sims' stenographer, and Alexander B. Gordie, a boarder in the house where she lives. Their hearing of the charge of "conspiracy" to steal important government documents was postponed today. Miss McLain made a partial confession, it is understood. If more information can be obtained prominent attorneys will be asked to explain. Papers in the John R. Walsh case have disappeared at various times. John S. Miller, a Standard Oil attorney, and also for Walsh, was closeted with Sims today.

SIXTEEN MILLION POUNDS TOBACCO TO IMPERIAL CO.

Henderson, Ky., Nov. 1.—(Special.)—The Imperial Tobacco company has purchased for $1,280,000 the entire 1907 crop pledged to the American Society of Equity in Henderson, Union, Webster, Hopkins and Crittenden counties. Sixteen million pounds are involved. The price paid was that demanded by farmers and the highest since the war price.

Owensboro Next. Shelbyville, Ky., Nov. 1.—(Special.)—The National Tobacco Growers adjourned after re-electing the officers and choosing Owensboro as the next meeting place.

HURLEY IS SINKING

Patrolman Aaron Hurley, of South Ninth street, who has been precariously ill of paralysis, is reported in a hopeless condition. His pulse is weak and although he is partly conscious, physicians believe he cannot live many hours longer.

THOMAS BOSWELL

Mr. Thomas Boswell, 44 years old, a native of McCracken county, died this morning at 9:30 o'clock at the Riverside hospital of a complication of diseases after a brief illness. He became ill Tuesday afternoon of congestion and was taken to his room on South Ninth street. He was born near Paducah and leaves but one near relative, an uncle, Mr. Thomas Boswell, of the county, a prominent and wealthy farmer. The late L. W. Boswell was also an uncle.

Paducah Boy in Politics. O. L. Kruger, formerly of Paducah, is candidate for councilman in Memphis. He has been president of the school board and is prominent in city affairs. He is the brother of Mrs. Maud Balthaser, Mrs. W. W. Hunt and Mrs. J. C. Piper, of this city.

Three Boats in It. Vladivostok, Nov. 1.—Crews of three torpedo boat destroyers were in Wednesday's mutiny, it has been found. All hoisted the red flag, but loyal sailors on two of the vessels rushed to the officers' aid and after a desperate fight hauled the red flag down. It is unknown how many actually were killed during the mutiny.

CHRISTIAN BOARD AND CITY SUNDAY SCHOOLS TONIGHT

The session of the district meeting of the Christian Women's Bible Missionary society of Southwestern Kentucky at the First Christian church closed yesterday afternoon after a very successful and interesting meeting. The reports of the officers of the society showed that a great deal of work had been accomplished during the past year. The society elected manager, and Miss Bessie Harper, of Hopkinsville, secretary and treasurer for the ensuing year. The Sunday school convention is in session today with a large attendance considering the bad weather. Tonight the city union meets with the convention.

OFFICERS CAN NOT PREVENT VOTING IF VOTER SWEARS

The true inwardness of the numerous challenges of voters made by the local Democratic machine, which will cost the taxpayers something more than $100, becomes apparent as the residences of the challenged voters are studied. They are located in precincts, in which the Democrats have the election officers. The scheme of the workers is based on an erroneous idea of the law, and Clem Whittemore should have better posted himself. These voters were challenged and then the officers made return on the notices "not found." On that return, behind which the court for obvious reasons cannot go, the court ordered the voters marked "doubtful." All doubtful voters, and in fact, any other voter, for that matter, may be made to take oath as to his right to vote at the polls election day.

Now the idea of the machine gang was, that the judges and election officer might prevent any "doubtful" applicant from voting even after he had taken the prescribed oath, and they challenged voters in precincts in which there is a Democratic election officer, in order that if the Democratic and Republican judges should deadlock on the question of permitting a man to vote, the sheriff could decide, and thus some 200 voters would be disfranchised by the arbitrary action of the officers.

But, unfortunately for the gang, and fortunately for the voters, the election officers have no right to deprive a man of his vote. They may compel him to make oath, but after that he must be allowed to vote. This was the last hope of the machine crowd, and it is said that no less authority on what is going on than Harry Tandy, told it.

Smithland, Ky., Nov. 1. (Special.)—People here are having considerable amusement at the expense of Hager's supporters on account of a description in a Louisville paper of his speech here, in which his reception in Smithland is represented as the heartiest in the state. If that is a fact he must be having a discouraging time of it; for Smithland didn't show much interest in Hager's candidacy.

GOVERNOR SPENT NIGHT SLEEPING AT PALMER HOUSE

The exposure of that fake interview with Mr. Bryant, of the firm of Engliert & Bryant, in the News-Democrat Wednesday night, has created a stir in the city. When the interview with Mr. Bryant and Mr. Will Engliert appeared in The Sun last night, Charlie Graham and former Mayor James Lang got Mr. Engliert into Lang's drug store and worked for hours with him, endeavoring to induce him to sign a long affidavit, but without avail. At a rally last night, Charlie Graham got up and vehemently protested that he didn't do it.

GOVERNOR SPENT NIGHT SLEEPING AT PALMER HOUSE

"J. C. W. Beckham, Bardonia, Ky.," inscribed in a large, full, free hand, attracted attention at the Palmer House last night. Everybody presumed that it was the "governor," but he was nowhere in evidence. This morning he made his appearance and dispelled doubts.

Governor Beckham spent a quiet night in Paducah and refreshed this morning, started for Greenville to continue speaking. He was unattended, and few at the station this morning were aware that the governor of the state was among them. "I am winding up my campaign," he stated to a reporter at the station. "I spoke at Princeton yesterday afternoon, and came to Paducah to spend the night. I feel refreshed and will speak at Greenville this afternoon and will drive to Central City to speak tonight."

Box Social at Park. There will be a box social at the park school-house in Arcadia Saturday evening, November 8. All ladies are expected to bring boxes. A special musical program has been arranged and the best of entertainment is assured.

TAFT'S RETURN TRIP

Manila, Nov. 1.—To aid Governor General Smith in administration problems, Taft has postponed departure until November 9. He will leave Vladivostok ten days later and stop at St. Petersburg and Berlin, making unofficial visits.

Since the season of "campaign lies" has opened, the esteemed News-Democrat shouldn't hesitate to attempt an explanation of that fake Bryant interview.

According to the News-Democrat, any Democrat, who scratches his ticket, or any Republican, who scratches his ticket is a "renegade" or a "traitor."

An enthusiastic Democrat in speaking of The Sun's exposure of the News-Democrat's fake interview with the firm of Engliert & Bryant, stated that the News-Democrat had the matter clinched, but could not publish its version for a day or two.

Must Take Down Cards.

The board of public works has ordered all cards and dodgers removed from poles, and candidate, whose cards appear on telegraph poles, anywhere in the city are being notified today of the order.

"But I dare say there never was a time in its history when the public voice expressed with such unanimity the desire for the triumph of civic pride and decency. And its triumph will mark an epoch in the city's progress. A strong and conservative administration will drive away petty strife as well as dirty politics and intrigues, and will become a bulwark of protection against factional strife. Neither party fealty nor private interest should override the public good. Paducah can't afford to take a step backward now. It would be suicidal. And any effort in that direction would recoil on the heads of the men who undertake it," said A. V. Martin in his letter of acceptance of the nomination for city attorney.

THREE INDIANS KILLED IN FIGHT WITH SOLDIERS

Washington, Nov. 1.—In a battle between United States troops and Indians, which occurred in Southern Utah several days ago, three persons were killed and another wounded, all believed to have been Indians. The news of the occurrence was conveyed to the Indian bureau in a telegram from Superintendent Shelton, of the Sag Juan agency, which, thought dated yesterday, was not received until today.

The army command consisted of four officers, seventy-four men and three Indian scouts. The Indians taken into custody are part of a band of Navajos that has been making trouble on the Navajo reservation in northwestern New Mexico and northeastern Arizona. For some time a number of Indians under the leadership of Byllie have been creating disturbances because of their disinclination to observe the regulations of the Indian office and their efforts to prevent others of the tribe from doing so.

Superintendent Shelton made a request that a body of soldiers be sent to the reservation, and accordingly Troops I and K of the Fifth cavalry, under command of Capt. H. O. Willard, were dispatched from Fort Wingate, N. M., to Anetha, Utah.

J. J. Berry General Manager of News-Democrat, Calls on Engliert and Bryant in Regard to Their Statement in The Sun, and Learns Just What the Sun Has Published

DODGING FACTS OF THE CASE

Waddie Lang was the representative of the News-Democrat who didn't interview Mr. Bryant, of the firm of Engliert & Bryant. The fact developed in another interview at Engliert & Bryant's store. Mr. J. J. Berry, general manager of the News-Democrat, and James Lang did the interviewing this time.

"Mr. Bryant," said Mr. Berry, "Didn't you tell Waddie Lang that Tom Harrison didn't offer you any contract with the city for your support of him?"

"I did," said Mr. Bryant. "Just as I told several people that, Tom Harrison didn't make such an offer in person, and the offer that was made, was made to Mr. Gilbert."

"Well, didn't you know that Mr. Lang was representing the News-Democrat?" continued Mr. Berry.

"Why, no," said Mr. Bryant with surprise in his voice. "I didn't. I thought he was a druggist. I knew the other gentleman was a butcher, because he had his apron on."

It doesn't require newspaper experience to judge that the News-Democrat adopted an underhanded way of getting an interview from Mr. Bryant, to say nothing of the manner in which he was misrepresented, and the significant absence of quotation marks.

City Finance Report.

The city finance report for October follows: Balance October 1, $5,467.50; collected, $6,781.87; disbursements, $14,873.46; balance at close of month, $7,875.91.

WEATHER GUESSING

Genuine November weather prevailed the opening day of the month, and the rainfall has made it disagreeable. Many people declare that there will be no more pretty weather, and a hard winter is booked by some of the local goosene prophets. However, they give no reason for their predictions, and their predictions seem to be based wholly on guesswork.

CASE OF VANDALISM

One of the worst cases of vandalism reported this morning as a Halloween "joke" was the destruction of concrete steps at the residence of Prof. W. H. Sugg, 1111 Jefferson street. The steps leading to his walk, built of solid concrete, were destroyed, and the fence torn down for several feet. Indications are that the boys used crowbars and sledge hammers. The police are investigating this particular case.

THEATRICAL NOTES

"A Cowboy's Girl."

Concerning "A Cowboy's Girl," which appears at The Kentucky tonight, the Los Angeles Daily News says:

"A Cowboy's Girl" opened a week's engagement yesterday afternoon at the People's theater to a full house and evidently gave its patrons what they wanted, judging by the applause accorded. "A Cowboy's Girl" deals with life on the frontier, the scenes being laid in western Texas, and while showing evidence of the border drama and 'wild and woolly west," the plot of the play is strong and tells a pretty story of western life, with plenty of good comedy situations interwoven in the scenes to offset the 'thrills' and keep the audience in a merry mood. Several pleasing specialties are introduced, and a musical number by Perce Benton, including about everything imaginable in the way of musical instruments, was a feature."—Los Angeles Daily News, January 7.

Wilton Lackaye in Hall Caine's "The Bondman."

No greater actor, no stronger drama, no better caste will be seen in Paducah this season than are offered in William Brady's production of Hall Caine's "The Bondman" with Wilton Lackaye, creator of "Svend" and hero of "The Pit," in the principal character role. To those who have seen Mr. Lackaye, there need be no further commendation than that he is appearing in "The Bondman" under William Brady's management. Mr. Brady's production ranks with best of road shows. If Mr. Lackaye plays to good business tomorrow matinee and night it will mean that Paducah will be put on the "good towns" list of the Brady shows, and theater patrons of this city will be offered the opportunity to see more great productions during this and future seasons.

RINK OPENING

WILL TAKE PLACE SOME TIME NEXT WEEK POSITIVELY.

Manager Crumbaugh Tells Something About the New Enterprise at Tenth and Broadway.

The management of the Auditorium Rink state that the rink will positively be opened some time next week, the date to be announced later. The skates are here. The Military Band is here and the skate floor is being laid.

Some people are under the impression that private skates cannot be used on the floor. This is a great mistake. Any one may use any make of skate they wish. If, however, the skate has a pointed toe it will have to be sawed off.

Skates that have been used on sidewalks are all right for rink use, provided new rollers are put on. That will be the only expense attached thereto.

Parties owning their skates can leave them at the rink without any charge being made for their care.

Mr. J. G. Parnes, of Louisville, arrived this morning and begins surfacing the floor tomorrow. He has a special machine built for this purpose and is the same as used by all the big rinks in the country.

The surfacing will cost the rink almost five hundred dollars and when completed (in about seven days) the floor will be as fine as it is possible to make it, and no floor in the country will excel it.

It will be readily seen that it would injure this floor greatly to use rough sidewalk rollers on it, and it is for the best interests of the skaters that only smooth rollers be used.

Mr. Ernest B. Coyle, of Louisville, will be the chief instructor. Mr. Coyle is now in the city. He has been connected in the same capacity with a big rink in Louisville.

He Was Extremely Happy.

And yet he had the blues.

SEEK WATCH INSPECTION LAW.

Railroad Employees and Retail Jewelers Working at Springfield.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 31.—Railroad employees and retail jewelers, working together, will endeavor this week to secure from the Illinois legislature the passage of a bill providing how watches of railroad employees shall be inspected. The bill probably will be introduced in the house by Representative King and in the senate by Senator Hurlburt, both of Galesburg, which is the center of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy system.

The bill provides that all railroads operating within the state shall maintain and establish a department of time inspection. The employees of the department shall consist of a superintendent, who shall be appointed by the railroad company, and there shall be appointed by this superintendent as many assistants as may be necessary to transact the business of the department.

It is provided that no person who is a stockholder or part owner of any watch manufacturing, who places upon the market for railroad use any watch bearing his name or upon which his name is inscribed, or who shall be interested in the sale of such watches, shall be eligible for the position of superintendent or general inspector. Nor shall any subinspector be appointed who shall in any way be interested in the manufacture or sale of watches placed on the market for railroad use.

It is understood that certain affidavits are in the possession of representatives of the interests who are pushing this bill, which reflect on the method of operation of one of the companies, which has a practical monopoly on the watch inspection in Illinois and surrounding states.

Parental Anticipation.
Senator Bailey, of Texas, tells of one of his constituents, the father of a promising son, who had great difficulty in finding a Christian name for the youngster. "What's the trouble, anyway?" Mr. Bailey asked, with considerable secret amusement. "There are a good many to choose from." "Yes, that's true," the father said, ruminating his hair; "but we wanted to hit upon a particularly good name for him, one that is pretty and has a distinguished sound, and which is not common, as there will be so many babies named after him when he is president."—Exchange.

Quinsy, Sore Throat, Neuralgia of the Nerves

MRS. WM. VAN GAASBEK.

A remarkable cure was effected in the case of Mrs. Wm. Van Gaasbeek, of 141 Foxhall Avenue, Kingston, New York, who suffered a long time from Quinsy, Sore Throat and Neuralgia. After all other medicines failed, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey made a permanent cure.

In a recent letter Mrs. Van Gaasbeek wrote:

"I have been a great sufferer for a long time from quinsy sore throat and neuralgia of the nerves. I had tried almost everything but nothing seemed to help me. A friend advised me to try Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and after taking a half dozen bottles I was cured. Have never had any symptoms of the disease since. I recommend it to any one suffering from these diseases."

Thousands of unsolicited letters of gratitude like this of Mrs. Van Gaasbeek are received from grateful patients who are anxious to extol the merits of this great life-saver—Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ of the seed and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a pale malt, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances renders it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It is recognized everywhere as the unfailing specific for the cure of consumption, nervousness, typhoid, malaria, every form of stomach trouble, diseases of the throat and lungs, and all run down and weakened conditions of the brain and body. It restores youthful vigor to the old and maintains the health and strength of the young. It nourishes and feeds the vital forces. It is a form of food already digested. It is prescribed by doctors of all schools, is used in the leading hospitals of the world, and is recognized as a family medicine everywhere. It is absolutely pure.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

LARGE COLLECTIONS

Made By Sheriff and Deputies on Last Day of October.

Sheriff John Ogilvie collected something like $15,000 in county taxes yesterday and will keep open office today and tonight. The law reads that the penalty shall go on November 1, but does not specify any hour. He takes it that this may mean any time during the day. Therefore he will add the penalty of 6 per cent on unpaid taxes tonight.

No Pump Party.

"That famous temperance reformer, the late Francis Murphy," said a Pittsburgh man, "had many odd adventures in the course of his very useful life."

"He once told me of a case where a drinking man with a neat joke, got for the moment a little the better of him in an argument."

"The man was a club man, a bon vivant, famous for his wine cellar, and Mr. Murphy read him a strong lecture on the drink evil.

"But the bon vivant only smiled, shook his head and said:

"Well, Mr. Murphy, I have seen many a pleasant party around a table but I have never seen one 'round a pump.'"—Indianapolis News.

Why Is Sugar Sweet?

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth, but do dissolve readily in the acids of the stomach. SOUTH SIDE FIRE

DR. SEARS' OFFICE AND TAILOR SHOP DESTROYED.

Loss Will Be $500 Fully Covered By Insurance—Origin of the Fire.

Fire visited the building occupied jointly by the Thomas Goodman barber shop and pressing club and Dr. Carl M. Sears as an office, on Meyers street just beyond Island creek bridge, last night at 10:30 o'clock, and did damage estimated at $500, fully covered by insurance. The fire is supposed to have originated from the pressing club department, which had been closed several hours. The No. 2 fire company and No. 4 truck answered and had a hard time fighting the conflagration due to the position of the building. They had to fight from the rear, and the building stands on 25 foot supports in the rear. Dr. Sears had retired and lost $40 in currency which burned with his trousers in an adjoining room. Both Dr. Sears and Mr. Goodman are fully insured.

HITCHCOCK

FRIENDS ADVANCE SUICIDE AND MURDER THEORIES.

Actor Accused of Heinous Offenses Disappeared and May Be in Hiding.

New York, Nov. 1.—The disappearance of Raymond Hitchcock, following upon his indictment by the grand jury, which had heard the stories of three little girls, was the absorbing topic of today on Broadway, where those who had known the star intimately during his ten years on the stage advanced half a dozen theories in explanation of his default. Many of his friends insisted today that driven desperate by the serious accusations, he had committed suicide. Others were satisfied that he had been spirited away and possibly murdered by the men who had practiced blackmail upon the comedian and who feared exposure if the case against their victim came to trial. This theory was voiced by Herman Fromme, the missing man's attorney, and by Mrs. Hitchcock, who, before her marriage, was Seabell Mangansarian, of Chicago. While these theories gained some credence the police did not relax their efforts to locate Hitchcock but were unsuccessful. Some of Hitchcock's acquaintances think it likely that he has sought seclusion where, undisturbed for a few days, he can think over his predicament and decide upon a course of action.

Hitchcock disappeared less than three hours before the grand jury filed at 1 p. m. true bills containing six indictments, on the strength of accusations made against him by Ellen Van Hagen, Elsie Voecks and Flora Whiston—the young girls with whose stories his name had been linked during the past week.

WILL BE BALL PLAYERS GUILTY OF JUMPING CONTRACTS.

National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs Adopts Resolutions.

New York, Nov. 1.—At the final session of the National Association of Professional Baseball clubs this afternoon, resolutions were adopted by which all players adjudged guilty of contract jumping and placed upon the ineligible list by the national association, shall be forever barred from playing with any club of the association, excepting the Tri-State League. That league was excepted on account of the agreement by which it came into the association. The national board of the National Association of Minor Baseball Leagues is still in session, and probably will continue at work until Saturday.

HALLOWE'EN PRANKS

BROWNIES AND IMPS GET IN THEIR WORK IN PADUCAH.

Property Destroyed and Citizens Discouraged by Confusion Resulting From Revelry.

Residents in every portion of the city were consigning Young America to the infernal regions this morning. There was cursing, fussing, tumbling and righteous indignation manifested in many a household, and all because of Halloween pranks of youngsters last night. In some instances real damage was done and jokes were carried too far.

When Mr. Charles Speck, the grocer of Thirteenth and Tennessee streets, went to hitch up and begin his early marketing, he found no wagon to hitch to. After a careful search he found the bed on top of the stable and the wheels hanging on several nearby telephone poles.

Mr. C. F. Akers, of Goebel avenue, found his plank walk torn up and the boards stacked in front of a nearby grocery store.

On West Tennessee street other wagons were taken apart and scattered about. On the levee several wagons were half submerged in the Ohio river. Roomers, occupying upstairs rooms downtown, found their doors wired securely and had to beat and pound until they attracted pedestrians who released them. Gates were removed by the score. Some iron gates were even torn from their hinges and thrown into hollows, under culverts, hung on telephone poles and thrown under houses. Settees and chairs from front porches were exchanged, and even trees were torn down. A small tree measuring six inches in diameter was broken off near the roots in front of Magistrate John Burnett's residence on North Fifth street. Signs advertising whiskey were drawn on church doors, windows and doors were barricaded. School houses suffered too. The Washington building front door was barricaded by heavy timbers, as was the Lincoln colored school at Eighth and Ohio streets.

Many fences were removed.

Where Are Your Boys Tonight?

How often does this question occur to parents of Paducah boys?

And how often do you consider this question?

Is there a place in all our city, provided especially for your boys, where they may assemble to spend their evenings, safe from the allurements of vice and sin?

If there is such a place, I as a boy, have failed to find it, but realizing the great need of a place where boys may feel a safe haven of rest and pleasure, I am prompted to write this with the hope that some one may awaken to the vast good that may be done in this direction. I am always ashamed of the fact that we have not even a Y. M. C. A.

This is an age of amusement, and it clean, wholesome places and pleasures are not provided there, your young boys are sure to fall and the coming manhood of Paducah is lost. The women have done a good work in a very short time in securing a Woman's club house. If such a place is needed for women, how much more is one needed for boys and young men?

Think this over, friends, and see if someone cannot suggest a way to secure a place of refuge for the boys.

LEG CRUSHED

BILLY FAUNTLEROY, COLORED. FOUND BY I. C. TRACK.

Not Known How Accident Happened But He Was Run Over By an Engine.

With his right leg crushed off between knee and ankle, and apparently dead, Billy Fauntleroy, colored, 45 years old, was found this morning at 2:45 o'clock lying on the Illinois Central incline at the foot of Campbell street 150 feet off the approach. It is not known how or when he was injured. Patrolmen Wallace and Howell found him and summoned Illinois Central physicians, who removed him to the hospital.

It is presumed that Fauntleroy was run over by switch engine No. 199. Foreman Norman Reeder and Engineer Fred West, which was working last night in the boat yards, dozens of runs on the incline are made nightly and Fauntleroy may have been run down early in the night. In fact this is the accepted theory. He was unable to speak and did not regain consciousness at daylight. Physicians were afraid to operate on account of his condition.

The unfortunate man has a sister residing on South Eighth street between Adams and Jackson streets and had been doing odd jobs as porter about downtown stores. He had been in the county poor house for some time until one year ago. He had never been able during the past two years to do hard work. His case is being investigated. The engine crew did not see him or know anything of the accident until the body was found.

A Poor Blacksmith.

A North Philadelphia woman, who is locally famous for her cooking, had some of her neighbors and friends at her home one evening last week to a supper given in honor of her daughter. Everything on the table was admired by her guests. Among the things that were admired most of all was a beautiful cake.

"It is so soft," exclaimed one of the guests.

"And so light," praised another.

"Pray tell us where you got the recipe," from another.

"I am very glad you think it is so soft and light," replied the hostess.

"I made it out of my own head."

It is funny how mighty little work it takes to convince a man that he has earned a rest.

are acquainted with the duties of the offices of treasurer and clerk.

Through their knowledge of the details of the offices, in which they are both now working, they will be able to save the city thousands of dollars. They will be in sympathy with the policy of the Smith administration.

Thus all departments will be working in harmony toward a greater Paducah, reduction of taxation, and the divorce of municipal departments from machine politics.

Give James P. Smith a general council that will work with him, and not try to hamstring the administration.

How can a Democrat ask a Republican to vote for him, when the party organ brands the man who scratches his ticket, as a "traitor" and "renegade."

The man who exercises the right of a freeman to vote as he pleases, regardless of party, is not a "rule or ruin" man; but he is a man, who declines to be ruled and ruined.

The News-Democrat publishes an alleged interview, misrepresenting the man supposed to be speaking, without having seen him or talked with him, and then calmly remarks that the season of the "Campaign Lie" is open. Anybody who reads the News-Democrat Wednesday evening could have guessed that without waiting for the belated announcement.

It is simple, but disreputable, and worn out in its effect, this scheme of challenging voters by summons to appear before Judge Lightfoot. No effort is made to find the voters, and the return is made, "not found." Then when the voter does not appear having no notice of the hearing, he is marked "doubtful" on the book. He then must swear to his residence election day and that consumes time. Not only are they not in earnest, but the machine crowd attempted to act unfairly at the hearing, and Judge Lightfoot was moved to remark: "A man must not lightly be deprived of his vote."

A NEW PERIL.

What is the issue in the local campaign?

Once The Sun was moved to say, it was an issue between a business man, with property interests of his own and other citizens of Paducah at heart; and a politician, representing a faction of political spoliemen. The Sun put it squarely up to the citizens of Paducah to choose which they wanted in the city hall. The Sun declared that James P. Smith is the heaviest single taxpayer in the city, that all his earnings are invested in real estate of the better class; that he was born and reared in Paducah, trained in her commercial school and acquainted with the demands of her property interests. He represents, as few men represent, the home owners, the wage earners and the business men of this city. If training and environment will control a man's actions in office, James P. Smith's every official act will be dictated by a natural inclination to do what is best for the progress and development of Paducah, and guided by a comprehensive knowledge of all subjects pertaining to the city's welfare, with a sympathetic grasp of the situation as the taxpayer views it.

His interest are a guarantee of consideration for the welfare of the city. He refused the nomination once, because he feared those interests might suffer by neglect. So, evidently it is not an ardent desire for a political career that induced him finally to accept the nomination. He says he will seek no further political preferment; will not conduct his office in the interest of the preferment or any one else, and will recognize no party lines in the appointments he may make.

Can his opponent say he is so inclined to seek further political preferment or will not make political appointments? Can Mr. Harrison honestly declare that he is not under obligation to those politicians who aided him in his canvass at the primary against another faction, and who are his intimates and advisers in this campaign?

If Mr. Harrison is elected, he can have no conception of the office of mayor aside from its political possibilities; for he is a politician, and has no property interests in Paducah and no experience or knowledge that would qualify him to represent that element of citizenship that foots the bills.

We have said, and The Sun still maintains, that the issue primarily was that of Paducah or the politicians; but the trend of events has brought forward a new aspect of the issue still more ominous. We are confronted with a condition of affairs in Paducah that differs only in degree from the conditions in Louisville, that led to Paul Barth's suicide.

The Sun for two days has produced concrete proof of political degradation unexampled in the history of the city. A reputable firm of grocers declare they were approached with the offer of a contract for supplying the city with groceries at the price of their support of Mr. Harrison. A politician was actually selling the city before he got his hands on it. What other compacts of a like nature have been made, we are unable to say—yet.

Taxpayers of Paducah were mulcted to pay for service on voters, who had a right to register, and who, when they appeared before the county judge to defend that right, were dismissed without a question at the instance of attorneys for Democratic challengers. Others were not served with notice, and return was made "not found." In order that they may be marked doubtful and compelled to make oath at the polls.

Announcement of a joint debate between Eugene Graves and Professor McBroom was made in the party organ, so that a crowd could be assembled to hear McBroom, and when he did not appear, he could be branded anything his traducers wished to brand him, although he had no notice of any such arrangement, and had dates in other parts of the county to all at the time.

We see the local organ openly flaunting the fact that it is not criminal to purchase registration certificates; and to cap the climax, the publication of an interview with a man, when that gentleman and his partners are ready to swear that no News-Democrat reporter saw him, and that he never spoke the words attributed to him by that paper.

We are now ready to concede there is a moral issue involved. The principle of the right of suffrage is attacked; offers are made to buy registration certificates; an effort is made to bribe a registration officer; an offer is made to farm out a city contract for political favors; misrepresentation and abuse in the party organ are resorted to. All this is because the machine is in straits. Frankfort methods are here introduced, but the job is bungled. The people are about to pronounce judgment on such methods, and there must be a clean sweep. The police court crowd must not be allowed to divide and parcel out this fair city among its heblers and the hangers on of the machine at Frankfort. The people of Paducah must speak now, once for all, against political debauchery. Paducah must be saved from falling into the hands of the spoliemen, not only to save the public treasury, but to preserve the purity of the ballot.

In the excitement incident to the mayor's election it behooves every voter to consider also the men he will vote to put in the general council to assist the executive. The person of both of the tickets is such as would appeal to the average citizen in ordinary times, but just now, when so much is at stake in the city; when every condition that makes for physical, financial and moral prosperity for the city demands a business man in the office of mayor, a general council should be elected that will uphold the mayor in the work to be done.

CRACK OF THE WHIP.

There is no such a thing as "independent" voting to a man of either of the old parties. A man is either a bolter or a turncoat, a renegade or a traitor, who leaves his declared party to vote with the other side. This is all there is to such a caper, says the News-Democrat.

If any Republican has thought of supporting a single man on the Democratic ticket, that is the kind of welcome he may anticipate from the local Democratic organ. That great body of Democrats, who find it impossible to swallow all that an irresponsible machine has attempted to thrust down their throats, are branded as "traitors" and "renegades," as though the party organization machine was everything and their own consciences nothing. As though an organ, whose record is more notable for bolting than regularity, has the authority to dictate to free American citizens how they shall exercise a franchise that cost the blood of martyrs to secure.

That argument of the News-Democrat might appeal to a flock of feeble-minded sheep, but not to intelligent voters in a city like Paducah. We assume no such weakness of intellect on the part of the voters. We paid their intellect and discrimination the compliment, of picking out the best and strongest available man for mayor, and persuading him to accept the nomination; of even choosing a Democrat now and then for a place, for which he was peculiarly fitted, in order that the personnel of the ticket might appeal to the best that is in our citizenship. While the Democratic organ is using a whip, we are entreating you with good men.

The editor of the Mayfield Messenger isn't much of a writer himself, but he has a keen appreciation of the merits of others' thought. Here is one he culled from the Calvert City Times:

"Benton is certainly making a reputation for 'kid marriages.' A boy or a girl scarcely lives to be sweet 16 in and about Benton, before they get married and start out upon life's rugged road together. After all, we don't know but what they are doing the proper thing; let them get married while they are kids and grow up together and they will appreciate both the pleasures and adversities of life."

THEATER

CHIEF COLLINS WANTS TO BUILD ONE ON HIS LOT.

Has Faith in Paducah and Says He Can Get Financial Backing for Enterprise.

James Collins, chief of police, has announced that he is preparing to build a theater. Chief Collins is not joking, and has the theatrical bug in his bonnet, buzzing constantly. He is already working on the organization of a stock company, and believes that with the proper management another theater may be made a success here. "I am going to build a theater," Chief Collins declared as he fell into his big cushioned office chair, "and I have been working hard on the matter. I intend to organize a company and will have no trouble in organizing it. In fact three capitalists have already encouraged me, and will subscribe stock."

Chief Collins owns property at 220 South Fourth street, a square and a half off Broadway, and believes it to be an ideal spot for a theater. It measures 60x156 feet. This will give a 60 foot stage, which is as large as the ordinary stage. The depth is sufficient, and he will at once consult an architect regarding plans.

"This town is no dead one," Chief Collins continued, "and mark my words she will be booming in the next few years. We will have trolley lines and another railroad or the suppression of the agencies that two and this will stimulate business make for lawlessness and disorder in every branch."

BLINDFOLDED

A Mystery Story of San Francisco

BY EARLE ASHLEY WALCOTT

(Copyright 1906, The Bobbs-Merrill Co.)

CHAPTER V. Doddridge Knapp.

It was past ten o'clock of the morning when the remembrance of the mysterious note I had received the preceding night came on me. I took the slip from my pocket, and read its contents once more. It was perplexing enough, but it furnished me with an idea. Of course I could not take money intended for Henry Wilton. But here was the first chance to get at the heart of this dreadful business. The writer of the note, I must suppose, was the mysterious employer. If I could see her I could find the way of escape from the dangerous burden of Henry Wilton's personality and mission.

But which bank could be meant? The only names I knew were the Bank of California, whose failure in the previous year had sent echoes even into my New England home, and the Anglo-Californian Bank, on which I held a draft. The former struck me as the more likely place of appointment, and after some skilful navigating I found myself at the corner of California and Sansome streets, before the building through which the wealth of an empire had flowed.

I watched closely the crowd that passed in and out of the treasure-house, and assumed what I hoped was an air of prosperous indifference to my surroundings.

No one appeared to notice me. There were eager men and cautious men, and men who looked secure and men who looked anxious, but neither man nor woman was looking for me.

Finally I had made a bad guess. I hastily walk through several other banks that I could see in the neighborhood gave no better result, and I had to acknowledge that this chance of penetrating the mystery was gone. I speculated for the moment on what the effects might be. To neglect an order of this kind might result in the withdrawal of the protection that had saved my life, and in turning me over to the mercies of the banditti who thought I knew something of the whereabouts of a boy.

As I reflected thus, I came upon a crowd massed about the steps of a great granite building in Pine Street; a whirlpool of men, it seemed, with cross-currents and eddies, and from the whole rose the murmur of excited voices.

It was the Stock Exchange, the gambler's paradise, in which millions were staked, won and lost, and ruin and affluence walked side by side.

As I watched the swaying, shouting mass with wonder and amusement, a thrill shot through me.

Upon the steps of the building, amid the crowd of brokers and speculators, I saw a tall, broad-shouldered man of fifty or fifty-five, his face keen, shrewd and hard, broad at the temples and tapering to a strong jaw, a yellow-gray mustache and imperial hair lining of the mouth, with the mark of the wolf strong upon the whole. It was a face never to be forgotten as long as I should hold memory at all. It was the face I had seen twelve hours before in the lantern flash in the dreadful alley, with the cry of murder ringing in my ears. Then it was lighted by the fierce fires of rage and hatred, and marked with the chagrin of baffled plans. Now it was cool, good-humored, alert for the battle of the Exchange that had already begun. But I knew it for the same, and was near crying aloud that here was a murderer.

I clutched my nearest neighbor by the arm, and demanded to know who it was.

"Doddridge Knapp," replied the man civilly. "He's running the Chol-

Read what Arthur Martin says in his letter accepting the nomination for city attorney, and then think of how the duties of that office have been neglected by Tom Harrison, and contemplate the office with Fayette Harper holding it.

Mr. Martin says: "I appreciate fully the compliment done me in this selection, for the reason that I did not seek the nomination, nor have I been identified in any way with politics. But I have at heart the best interest of the city of Paducah, and when it is made clear to me that I should bear some portion of the public service, although it requires a sacrifice of personal wishes, I shall not shrink such a call. This is a year full of hope and promise for the people who are striving for higher ideals and better public service. I believe in the people of Paducah, and I believe in the present growth and the future greatness of this city. It is evident from the spirit of its citizens that this young city is on the eve of a leap forward toward marvelous commercial and industrial prosperity, if encouraged by a wise administration of its governmental affairs. At its threshold both capital and labor stand expectant, awaiting the assurance that property will find full protection and personal safety will be promoted by strict enforcement of the law, and this will stimulate business make for lawlessness and disorder in the community."

Shivering? Well, no wonder. Shoot the straw hat and thin suit.

VOICE OF PEOPLE

Don't Forget the Council Boards. To the Editor:

A few words of advice to voters. Our principal work has been done in the interest of our candidate for mayor. We naturally suppose that if one should vote for Mr. Smith he would also vote the rest of the ticket; unless for personal reasons he should scratch a candidate. There are but five offices of profit to be filled besides that of mayor. These men are eminently fitted for the places to which they aspire, and none who

I must have stood in a daze on the busy street, for I was roused by some one shaking my arm with vigor.

"Come! are you asleep?" said the man, speaking in my ear. "Can't you hear?"

"Yes, yes," said I, rousing my attention.

"The chief wants you." His voice was low, almost a whisper.

"The chief? Who? Where?" I asked.

"At the City Hall!" I jumped to the conclusion that it was, of course, the chief of police, on the scent of the murder.

"No. Of course not. In the second office, you know."

This was scarcely enlightening. Doubtless, however, it was a summons from my unknown employer.

"I'll follow you," I said promptly.

"I don't think I'd better go," said the messenger dubiously. "He didn't say anything about it, and you know he's rather—"

"Well, I order it," I cut in decisively. "I may need you."

I certainly needed him at that moment if I was to find my way.

"Go ahead a few steps," I said.

My tone and manner impressed him, and he went without another word. I sauntered after him with as careless an air as I could assume.

My heart was beating fast. I felt that I was close to the mystery and that the next half hour would determine whether I was to take up Henry Wilton's work or to find my way in safety back to my own name and person.

My unconscious guide led the way along Montgomery Street into an office building, up a flight of stairs, and into a back hallway.

"Stay a moment," I said, as he had his hand on the door knob. "On second thoughts you can wait down stairs."

He turned back, and as his footsteps echoed down the stair I opened the door and entered the office.

As I crossed the threshold my heart gave a great bound, and I stopped short. Before me sat Doddridge Knapp, the King of the Street, the man for whom above all others in the world I felt a loathing and fear.

Doddridge Knapp finished signing his name to a paper on his desk before he looked up.

support our mayor should overlook Martin, Dorlan, Lehnhard, Andrecht, or Griffith. The candidates on our ticket for general council are representative men. No voter who has the interest of Paducah at heart, regardless of politics, should overlook W. T. Miller, as it is to him more than any one else, we are indebted for our new light plant, with a capacity for 300 instead of 150 lights. When the plant would have been leased out Miller refused; when the offer was made to furnish the city 75 lights at $62.50 each, he alone voted no; and when he had convinced the other members of the board of aldermen that he was right they joined in with him and improved the plant at an expense of $180.26. The superintendent's report shows the cost of each light last year to be $68.69 and $4 each this year. There are 202 lights in use, if you deduct the cost of each light this year from the cost of each light last year, and multiply the difference by the number of lights in use now, you will find a saving this year of $5,113.38 on lights. STOP WOMAN AND CONSIDER

First, that almost every operation in our hospitals, performed upon women, becomes necessary because of neglect of such symptoms as Backache, Irregularities, Displacements, Pain in the Side, Dragging Sensations, Dizziness and Sleeplessness.

Second, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, has cured more cases of female ills than any other one medicine known. It regulates, strengthens and restores women's health and is invaluable in preparing women for child-birth and during the period of Change of Life.

Third, the great volume of unsolicited and grateful testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time being published by special permission, give absolute evidence of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

For more than 30 years has been curing Female Complaints, such as Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Fainting and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and Organic Diseases, and it dissolves and expels Tumors at an early stage.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. for advice. She is the Mrs. Pinkham who has been advising sick women free of charge for more than twenty years, and before that she assisted her mother-in-law, Lydia E. Pinkham in advising. Thus she is especially well qualified to guide sick women back to health. Write today, don't wait until too late.

Passion Fruit.

The "passion fruit" of Australia is attracting attention. It has never been transported to other lands, but there seems no reason why it should not be carried over sea, as other fruits are. It is described with enthusiasm by those who have eaten it. It is borne upon a vine, and in New South Wales it can be had all the year round. An Englishman who ate of its dark purple globes found that it tasted like gooseberry, raspberry, pineapple, currant, strawberry and no one knows what else. It seems to combine the most delicious flavors of a great many fruits. And we have constant communication with Australia—why not vary our common places with the passion fruit?—Springfield Republican.

Appropriate.

"Why do so many dentists call their office dental parlors?" "Well, come to think of it, a dentist's office is a drawing room, isn't it?"—Baltimore American.

"You ought to have a motto," "A motto?" echoed Mr. Nurich, inquiringly. "Yes. The Prince of Wales, for instance, uses the motto, 'Ich dien.' I serve!" Well, put me down for 'Ich skiddob.' 'I dodge service.'—Washington Herald.

Woman's Nature

Is to love children, and no home can be completely happy without them, yet the ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass usually is so full of suffering, danger and fear that she looks forward to the critical hour with apprehension and dread. ROOSEVELT RIGHT

HENRY CLEWS TAKES UP FOR PRESIDENT'S COURSE.

Says He Is Justified and What He Does Is for the Good of the Country.

New

Easton, Conn., Nov. 1.—The issue of this city, an organ, listened to a professional question, "Is the discussion of the Roosevelt against the President Clews, banker, John," by Henry ward D. Whitney, attorney and Ed-York, and John W. Allis, of New York of this city. Alling attorney policy of the president in the terms, especially with reference the packing industry, the Standard Oil company and the railroad rate question.

Mr. Clews lauded the action of the president in instigating the prosecution of law breaking railways and industrial trusts. He spoke in part as follows:

"Whatever President Roosevelt has done he has done to promote the public good, whether his speeches have helped to cause distrust or not. I contend that he had no intention of menacing the prosperity of the country in denouncing and instigating the prosecution of law breaking railways and industrial trusts. While he was instrumental in turning on the light he was not responsible for the abuses of power which the light revealed, and its revelation of graft and illegal methods on the part of certain railway and other corporations, through acts of their responsible managers and controlling capitalists, that has undermined the public confidence in many of them. The fact that in nearly every instance of the government prosecution, the guilt of parties accused has been proven, on their trial, justifies President Roosevelt in his action."

KANKAKEE MAN SAYS SCHOOLS ARE FOR PRIZE FIGHTERS.

Considers Football but a Polite Term for Bruisers to Use and Gets Out Injunction.

Kankakee, Ill., Nov. 1.—A bill to restrain the authorities from permitting prize fighting in Kankakee public schools was filed in the circuit court today by Stephen R. Moore, dean of the county bar.

Attorney Moore filed his bill after he had watched the high school football team play one or two matches. He failed to see any difference between the gridiron game, as the boys played it, and prize fighting, except that possibly it was rougher and more dangerous to life and limb.

To Attorney Moore's vision the high school gridiron is simply an enlarged prize ring in which two sets of youths pommel one another till one side is so mauled and disabled that the other is declared winner. And since prize fighting is illegal Mr. Moore fails to see why the subterfuge under which it is carried on should be permitted.

"Football" Just a Polite Term. The bill for an injunction is directed against L. W. Smith, principal of the high school, and F. N. Aracy, superintendent of city schools. It is specifically designated "a bill for an injunction to restrain prize fighting in the public schools."

Attorney Moore carefully ignores the polite term "football." What he objects to is the encouragement given by the school authorities to prize fighting. He points out in his bill that the purpose of the board of education is to provide a common school education for persons between the ages of 5 and 21 years, and that no authority has been conferred upon the board or on any teacher or principal to train the pupils as prize fighters.

The bill declares that "L. W. Smith employed by the board of education in the capacity of principal of the high school, has organized a team out of the school that travels from place to place in the state of Illinois and engages in contests of prize fighting with scholars of other schools."

Degrading and Uncivilized. Principal Smith and Supt. Track, the bill charges, attempted to hide the fact that the pupils are prize fighters by calling their contests "football." That, declares Attorney Moore, "is simply subterfuge. In all its purposes and effects it is purely a contest of brute strength and force and fighting."

Apart from its malign influence upon scholarship, its attendant profanity, and other features which the bill describes as "demoralizing, degrading, unchristian and uncivilized," Attorney Moore holds the system is decidedly unfair, because the privileges of prize fighting are not extended to the whole school but to a few carefully selected members chosen for their brute strength and pugnacity.

In support of his plea to the court to restrain the prize fighting Attorney Moore calls attention to the fact that since October 1 there have been eight fatalities and many serious in-

HAGER'S NEGLECT

OVERLOOKED SOME FEES DUE FROM BILLY SEMONIN.

Henry Hines Was Not Visible to Reporters Concerning the Little Matter.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 1.—Mr. S. W. Hager, auditor, former chairman of the Democratic campaign committee and at present Democratic candidate for governor, has had another hard nut to crack.

It is the question of former County Clerk W. J. Semonin's retaining $4,300 in fees for entering the registration lists for the years 1904, 1905 and 1906.

This matter was brought to light yesterday by the letter sent to the auditor by Phil B. Thompson, clerk of the Jefferson county court, in which Mr. Thompson asked for instructions as to these fees which he had received this year amounting to $1,291.60. The extra clerk hire paid this year was $299, thus leaving a balance of nearly $1,000, which Mr. Thompson desired the auditor's office to apportion. He has been notified that this money is to be included in the fees of the office.

After it was found that Semonin was in arrears with the state, Auditor Hager and Judge Hines inspected his books to determine the amount due. Nothing was said about these fees which belong to the state.

Effort to interview Judge Hines clerk relative to the fees failed. The clerk of the Old Inn stated that Judge Hines had ordered that no one be admitted to his room.

Here are some questions for Mr. Hines to answer concerning Mr. Semonin's account for the state in 1904. How do you account for Semonin's $4,300 of fees?

What explanation can you give of your action in absolving Semonin?

He's So Careless.

He'll leave his boots and shoes around

With mud and dust bespattered; His papers I have always found About the carpet scattered. His ties and collars strew the room. His shirt studs he'll deposit With care where they will meet my broom In sweeping out the closet.

His pipes are simply everywhere. My furniture he scratches And really does not seem to care Where he may throw his matches. My sewing basket holds his keys, And he have had some clashes Because in spite of lectures he's So careless with his ashes.

He's no exception, I suppose. I've heard of other cases. It's pretty hard, though goodness knows,

When things aren't in their places. There's only one thing that he can Take care of, and it's funny, But I have never known that man To leave around his money.

Danderine

GREW MISS LEWIS' HAIR

AND WE CAN

PROVE IT

The Great Danderine Never Fails to Produce the Desired Results

MISS Lewis' hair was very thin and it was less than two feet in length when she began using Danderine. She says her hair and scalp are now fairly teeming with new life and vigor. That's the main secret of this great remedy's success as a hair grower. It enlivens, invigorates and fairly electrifies the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, causing unusual and unheard-of activity on the part of those two most important organs, resulting in a strenuous and continuous growth of the hair.

The following is a reproduction of Miss Lewis' last letter:

January 3, 1905.
Dear Doctor Knowlton:—
You know I told you in my first letter that my hair would not reach much below my shoulders, and that all of it together only made one tiny braid.
I am sending you my photograph, which I had taken at Stevens Bros. It tells the whole story better than I can tell it.
Everybody I know is using Danderine, so you see I am doing something to show my appreciation.
Sincerely yours, (Miss) EVA LEWIS.

Danderine makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy the world has ever known. It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a 25c bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes.

25 cents, 50 cents and $1. per bottle.
To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

CONGRESSMAN TAWNEY AND PARTY GO TO INVESTIGATE.

Committee on Appropriations Will Take Look at Work on the Isthmus.

New York, Nov. 1.—Congressman Tawney, of Minnesota, in charge of the committee of appropriations of the national house of representatives and nine other members of the committee sailed for Panama, where they will inquire into the present and prospective monetary needs of the canal enterprise. Tawney said the purpose of the committee was not to question the requested appropriation of $32,000,000 to continue the canal work, but to study the canal conditions, that the appropriations might be recommended with a full understanding of the needs of the situation.

Width Increased.

Washington, Nov. 1.—One hundred and ten feet is the width which the navy department has finally fixed upon as desirable for the locks for the projected Panama canal. This is an increase of ten feet in the width over the plans on which the commission is now working.

Rock Foundation Evident.

Colon, Nov. 1.—New borings made over the entire area of Gatun dam shows that rock foundations are everywhere possible. All previous doubt on this point has thus been removed, and the work on designs for the lock gates and sluice ways are advancing steadily. New borings have been made also in the vicinity of the Pedro Miguel locks and dams, and excavation on the site of the lock there is proceeding rapidly.

ROOSEVELT REFUSES TO COUNTERACT FUSION DEAL.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Every attempt that has been made by friends of Herbert Parsons to obtain an endorsement of the New York fusion ticket from President Roosevelt has met with failure. It has been known before that Parsons did not consult the president prior to making the Roosevelt ticket. Although Mr. Parsons or his friends may keep on trying to obtain aid and countenance from the Roosevelt element, they will not get either.

Mr. Hearst today is just as much the pet abomination of Mr. Roosevelt as he was when the president asked his secretary of state to expel the New York editor in a speech. Of course, Mr. Roosevelt can not come out and denounce the Parsons-Hearst alliance publicly, but he has many ways of letting his views of the matter be known.

The Only Way.

"Certainly, madam," responded the affable gentleman. "Pray consider me as an astral body. Walk right through me."

DOCTORS MISTAKES

It is said often to be buried six feet under ground. But many times women call on their family physicians, suffering as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or over-busy doctor, separate diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. Really, they are all one disease caused by some atone disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, keeps up the treatment until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better in reason of the wrong treatment, but probably worse. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system. As a powerful invigorating tonic, "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," run-down, debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative.

As a soothing and strengthening nerve "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One or three doses. Easy to take as candy.

MAKE NEW HOMESSEEKER RATE.

Western Roads Continue Excursions at Slightly Higher Figures.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—At a joint meeting today of the Western and Southwestern Passenger association an agreement was reached by the railroads to continue to run homeseechers' excursions twice a month, but on a slightly higher basis of rates. The basis has been one fare plus $2 for the round trip, with a maximum rate of $25 from Chicago. The new round trip rate will be one and one-half times the regular one-way fare from points in states having a maximum rate of 2 cents per mile, plus one and one-third times the one-way fare in states where the legal rate is 3 cents per mile, but with a maximum rate of $30 from Chicago.

The new basis practically makes a rate of 2 cents per mile each way. The western railroads will commence the sale of new mileage tickets on a basis of 2 cents per mile on December 10 instead of December 1, as originally planned.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equalled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

WILL NOT NOTICE THE CRITICISMS OF ACTION.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Neither Roosevelt nor any of the cabinet members will notice the criticisms of the administration's Wall Street relief measures. The president is confident Cortelyou handled the situation with wisdom in allowing Morgan, Rockefeller and the banks the use of government money. Most of the criticisms come from southern Democrats. Representative Gillespie, of Texas, is perhaps the most outspoken and says the government has gone to the aid of stock exchange gamblers, discriminating against the rest of the country so that crops cannot be moved.

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose, until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alternative and body builder; best of all for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by all druggists, 50c.

Rebels Make Mistake.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—It is stated in Tuesday's and Wednesday's battle between loyalists and sailors and mutineers ashore add about number nearly 100. Only an error in the mutineers' plans prevented a concerted outbreak, which might have given the rebels command of the barracks, fortresses and flotilla in the harbor.

How to Cure Constipation

Few people altogether escape a disorder of the bowels. You may catch cold, over-eat, over-drink, worry too much, not exercise enough or do a hundred and one other things that result in constipation or costiveness. When the trouble comes it is well to know what to do for it.

In the opinion of thousands there is no better cure for constipation than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which anyone can obtain for 50 cents or $1 at a drug store. We all have constipation occasionally, and the sensible thing to do is to have a bottle of this remedy always in the house. You take it at night on retiring, for example, and when you wake up in the morning at your usual hour it produces its results.

Your stomach instantly becomes lighter, your head clearer, your eyes brighter, you feel active and spry once again, your appetite has returned and you are ready to work with enthusiasm and vigor. All this may seem to be more than a dose or two, at a cost not to exceed two or three cents. It is only one of those remedies which do not cost too much to feel bad when you get good for so little.

Dr. Wilson Brown, of Metropolis, Ill., has no hesitancy in saying that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the greatest of all laxatives and he frankly admits to his patients that if they used it when the stomach, liver or bowels got out of order they would have less need of him. It is without doubt the best cure for occasional or chronic constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, jaundice, sour stomach, lazy liver, flatulency, diarrhoea, and similar digestive ailments in old or young. It is a thousand times better than salts or purgative waters, acts gently but surely, is pleasant to the taste, does not grip, and cures permanently.

Go to your druggist and get a 50 cent or $1 bottle and see if our claims are not justified.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Gentles yet most effective laxative for children, women and old folks.

A guaranteed, permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN." This product bears every genuine No. 1, Watson, D. C.

Courier-Journal: River men do not agree that it would be a good thing for them to have their boats under the interstate commerce commission, which would fix the rates, or at least regulate them. Some of the ablest river men believe that it would be best to allow things to go along as at present so far as rate-making is concerned. All river men are, however, agreed that there is a just and sensible thing to sever river navigation from deep water traffic, and have a different mode of inspection. Before action is taken it is likely another meeting of the river men will be held in Pittsburgh or Cincinnati to discuss the subject.

UREY WOODSON'S PAPER IS QUOTED

Said Administration Got $15,000 From Tobacco Trust

Declares That If Country People Knew of Methods of Raising Money They Would Desert Machine.

Mr. E. T. Franks made the following statement this morning:

"I read from the Owensboro Messenger, owned by Urey Woodson, Democratic national committeeman, just a few days before the campaign of 1906 between Beckham and McCreary closed:

"Sold out for $15,000 to the American Tobacco company."

"Gov. Beckham and his friends having been put in a bad plight by the exposure of the Haley letter, are attempting to oppose its effect by flooding the mails, showing up Noel Gaines' record. There is not one thing said against Gaines that Haley, Beckham & company did not know before they appointed him to his high position. While Beckham is preaching morality and purity in politics over the state, with his consent, are preparing, if possible, to steal the election. Parading as a prairie in public, in private he is exerting every means, fair and foul, to win the nomination.

"In the city of Lexington the friends of Gov. Beckham, with his consent, have registered 1,200 negro voters as Democrats at so much per head, and will vote every one of them for Beckham in the primary. Such disgraceful proceedings ought to defeat any man who sanctions it, and especially the man who is to be the chief beneficiary of this fraud. The cause of the governor must be desperate when he has to rely upon the Republicans to help him out.

"How long will the Democrats of

TRAINED NURSE

Writes a Letter to the Public.

"To Whom It May Concern: I am a trained nurse of nine years' experience in hospitals and private cases, and for the benefit of the people of Paducah. I wish you would publish my experience with the cod liver preparation, Vinol.

"I was completely prostrated from overwork. I had no appetite, could not sleep, my kidneys, liver and bowels became inactive, and as I grew weaker I could not retain either medicine or food on my stomach, and raised blood. The doctors said my condition was critical and I would probably die.

"As I had seen Vinol prescribed for my patients with such remarkable results, I decided to try it. After the first bottle I began to improve. I continued its use, and soon began to sleep and eat well; every organ in my body was strengthened and became normal, until it seemed good to be alive and I was restored to perfect health and strength.

"I advise all my patients who need strength, rich, red blood and flesh tissue to take Vinol, as it is so far superior to old-fashioned cod liver oil, emulsions or other tonics." Elizabeth M. Cremond, Trained Nurse, Boston, Mass.

In Paducah we sell Vinol on a positive guarantee to return money if it fails. W. B. McPherson, Druggist.

Kentucky stand for the system inaugurated by Beckham of taxing employees of state institutions part of their salaries to defray his campaign expenses? How long will they stand for a system of holding up corporate institutions and demanding aid for campaign funds? How long will the Democrats of Kentucky have nominations for office distributed to the man who can put up a pile to help in the campaign for the machine. We have been contending that Beckham was insincere on the temperance question and since our last issue a noted minister of Shelbyville has addressed a letter to the temperance people of the state, in which he states he has seen checks for several thousand dollars given to Beckham's campaign managers by the liquor interest. Sincere, of course, making speeches for temperance when his managers in other races took money from the whiskey people to elect him. Indorsed checks do not lie and they, for a wonder, do not claim that it is a Noel Gaines forgery.

The Georgetown Times' article about the $15,000 tobacco trust contribution follows:

"Beckham is making a plea to the country people on the temperance question, but he has never explained how the managers of his campaign sold out the country people body and soul to the American Tobacco company for $15,000. Beckham laid great stress in his speeches on some things the senate investigating committee said and did, but he is silent as the tomb, about this fact, which was brought out in the committee. Will the country people vote for a man who allows his campaign managers to take $15,000 from this great corporation that the farmers are fighting? There is not a farmer in Kentucky but who feels that he is oppressed by this great tobacco corporation, and yet when anyone in the legislature wants legislation in favor of the tobacco growers, the Beckham henchmen always pass the word down the line that they must not be hurt, because they put up $15,000 in the campaign fund."

"If the methods of raising money to defeat Jo Blackburn by the machine were made public, with the various offices parceled out to corrupt legislators were made public; if the rank and file could but take a look into that dark chapter of Democratic politics there could not be a doubt of the defeat of the machine and its leaders. Let us put men at the head of affairs who will not stoop to the low plane of Beckham politics. No wonder the Courier-Journal says, it has suppressed many facts which would damage Beckham in his present race. Democrats dislike to make such disclosures, but for the protection of the party and the people from such political piracy the time has come to act."

There is water, water everywhere today, but still there is not enough in the big rivers to float large steam boats over the shoals and bars. The slow, though steady, decline of the past several days continues today and the stage was shown to be 3.6 at Paducah, which is another fall of 2 in 24 hours.

The levee presented a dreary, forsaken appearance this morning. The J. B. Richardson was the only boat in before 10 o'clock and she was soon loaded and left on her trip to Cairo.

The R. Dunbar came in last night from Evansville in place of the Joe Fowler. She left this morning on her return trip.

The A. D. Allen will not go to Memphis tomorrow as expected, and it is doubtful whether she will get away before Monday. She is an Arkansas river boat that was built almost entirely new at the dry docks.

The Lydia left this morning for the Tennessee river for a tow of ties. The Inverness came in last night from the Tennessee river. She is preparing to make a return trip to that stream.

The steamer Kentucky came in yesterday from the Tennessee river. She will leave tomorrow on her return trip.

The Royal was in and out for Goldconda today with a fair business.

The I. N. Hook is being repaired at the dry docks. The Bob Dudley will also go on the docks for repairs while she is laying up waiting for a better stage of water in the Cumberland.

After doing valiant service for several weeks, rescuing sunken boats and barges, the sand digger was floated out to its position across from the wharf today and is busy "raising sand."

Official Forecasts.
The Ohio from Evansville to Cairo will continue falling slowly during the next 3 days.
The Tennessee from Florence to the mouth, not much change during the next 36 hours.
The Mississippi from below St. Louis to Cairo, will continue falling slowly during the next 3 days.

WHAT $15.00 WILL BUY

THERE'S a distinction about our $15 Suit, Overcoats and Cravenettes which singles them out for admiration in any company. Its the conscientious tailoring, the hand work, which makes a Suit look as well in service as it does when you buy it.

$15 Suits, Overcoats and Cravenettes are a specialty with us. We can demonstrate to you that our clothes at that price are the identical values you are asked to pay $18 and $20 for in the stores where you pay a couple of dollars extra for a pretty label. That extra money goes into honest hand work at Gullett's—and the garments themselves prove it by their finished, well-made appearance.

Come in tomorrow and examine The Addison, Gullett's semi form fitting Overcoat in Gray Cassimere. Or The Granville, a new Brown Single-breasted Suit—dreams of tasteful tailoring—both of them Conservatively.

First Appearance in Paducah OF THE EMINENT ACTOR

MR. WILTON LACKAYE

In Hall Caine's Latest Play

"THE BONDMAN"

Originating such roles as Svengali, in "Trilby;" Red Schemeul, in "The Children of the Ghetto;" Curtis Jadwin, in "The Pir;" Nero, Chas. O'Malley, Dr. Belgraff, etc., Wilton Lackaye stands first as America's best character actor, and his superb work as Jason in "The Bondman" will serve to strengthen his long established reputation. Paducah theater goers are to be congratulated that they have an opportunity to see this great actor, supported by one of the strongest companies seen in this city.
